Report: Pundit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar is a key figure of Bengal Renaissance. He reconstructed, modernized and simplified the Bengali language. To celebrate the Birth Bi-Centenary of this great personality, a one day state level seminar was organized by A.P.C Roy Government College and was sponsored by Department of Higher Education, Govt. of West Bengal on 26.09.2019.

The organizer cordially invited abstracts from interested scholars belonging to all the colleges from North Bengal area. The seminar was open to both students and teachers and opted to provide a platform to all to share their ideas on this great mind and his contributions to the society.

On the seminar day, several dignified delegates from different institutions and organizations presented their valuable lectures on the works and life of Vidyasagar which evoked unprecedented response among the students and audiences.

In this regard IQAC of APCRGC along with HE, WB Govt extended their helping hands to make the program a grand success.
