Date: 12.04.2023

Time: 12.00 noon

Venue: Seminar Hall

Seminar conducted by: IQAC, A.P.C. Roy Govt. College

Participation by: Faculties and students

Activity Report: A one day state level seminar on Aspects of Research Methodology was organised by IQAC, APC ROY GOVERNMENT COLLEGE on 12.04.2023. The purpose of this seminar was to highlight the different dimensions of research in a very generalised way irrespective of the subject specification so that the emerging students can get motivation to enter in the field of fundamental research work.

Dr.Saptarshi Ghosh, Professor, Department of Library and Information Science was our eminent resource person of this seminar. Our respected OIC, Prof. Mayukh Sarker and respected IQAC Coordinator, Dr.Kartick Chandra Dey heartily welcomed and introduced the resource person to all.

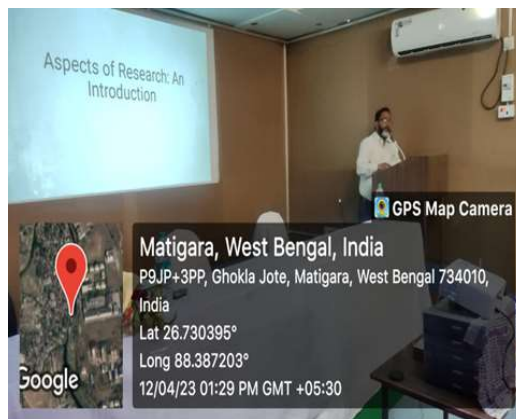

Dr.Ghosh presented his views on research methodology in a very general way and highlighted its basic components to the audience. He cited very interesting little examples to make us understand about various metrics like qualitative and quantitative research, surveys etc.

Along with the faculties and students of our colleges, people from other nearby colleges and universities were present on that day and the whole program really evoked a great response among all. Support from all the teaching and non-teaching staff and our beloved students of our college made the seminar undoubtedly a huge success.
